A Message from Father George

Father George Dokos, Proistamenos

Beholding the star leading to God, the Magi followed its brightness; and holding it as a lantern, they searched for the powerful King, and reaching the Unreachable, they rejoiced and cried to Him: Alleluia.

Beloved brothers and sisters in Christ,

From the time of Adam's disobedience and man's fall from his communion with God, humanity drifted far from the Divine and lost its way. Nevertheless, a distant memory remained in him, a certain longing for... something; something beyond himself. This fact is illustrated in one of St. Paul's speeches recorded in the Acts of the Apostles.

As the great Apostle was making his way through the city of Athens around the year 50 AD, he came to a place known as the Areopagus, very near the Acropolis. There he said to those gathered:

"Men of Athens, I perceive that in every way you are very religious. For as I passed along, and observed the objects of your worship, I found also an altar with this inscription: 'To an unknown god.' What therefore you worship as unknown, this I proclaim to you" (Acts 17:22-23).

Appealing to the Athenians' consciences and inner longing for that unknown god, St. Paul goes on to tell them that this desire to know the true God has been implanted in every human being, as St. Paul even quotes the ancient philosophers who were searching for the truth while yet in the darkness of ignorance, for God had created men in order "that they should seek God, in the hope that they might grope after Him and find Him. Yet He is not far from each one of us, for 'In Him we live and move and have our being' (Epimenides the Cretan); as even some of your poets have said, 'For we are indeed His offspring' (Aratus the Stoic)" (Acts 17:27-28).

One can see from this that even the ancients, such as Plato, Epimenides, Aratus, and son on, were literally groping in the dark, as it were, in search of the Creator and Fashioner of all things. And the hymn quoted above from the Akathist to the Theotokos paints a picture of the Magi, pagan philosophers from the East, being guided from darkness to light, from ignorance to knowledge, from hopelessness to hope, from meaninglessness to purpose, by using the Star of Bethlehem as a guiding lantern. At last, "reaching the Unreachable," that is, beholding in the flesh the Word of God "through Whom all things were made" (John 1:3), they rejoiced and cried aloud: Alleluia!!

As I write this final message to you, beloved, my heart's desire is that you might cherish like nothing else in the universe the knowledge of the truth that has been given to you, that has been revealed to you: the knowledge of Jesus Christ as the Savior of the world; your Savior. The unknown and unreachable god that humanity could neither comprehend nor reach on its own merits has come to us and made Himself known, and this unfathomable gift has been given to you and me.

As we approach Christmas – the Birth of the Son of God in time and through the holy Virgin – let us give thanks for what God has given us in Jesus Christ: the remission of our sins, victory over the devil, and the promise of everlasting life. And let us acknowledge that there is nothing we can ever do to repay God for His infinite blessings, but we can at least glorify His holy Name by our every word and action, love Him above all else, and love our neighbor as ourselves. Let us also humbly pray the following, again from the Akathist:

"Unsuccessful is every hymn that attempts to pay honor to the multitude of Your mercies. For even if we offer You songs in number equal to the sands, O holy King, yet we do nothing worthy of what You have given us who cry to You: Alleluia."

May the divine grace and rich blessings of the Coming of the Savior at Christmas be with you and yours.

With love in our Incarnate Lord,

+Fr. George

Year End Giving

As we approach the end of both our calendar and fiscal year, it is important that we correctly record all stewardship gifts. Every dollar we receive before 3:00 p.m. on Tuesday, December 28, will be recorded and reflected on your year-end Contribution Statement, and matched against your yearly pledge, as stewardship income for 2021. Donations received after the deadline will be counted towards our budget for 2022. Please note the holiday office closures listed below.

On occasion, a parishioner may choose to provide additional funds to the church, indicating these dollars should be recorded as a donation for a "future year." While we can make a notation of this request, the funds will still be recorded and reported as income for 2021. Your Statement of Financial Giving will accurately reflect all income received in a particular calendar year. Should you have any questions or need additional information, please see our Parish Council Treasurers, Tom Hainlin and Michael Rakes, for clarification.

Holiday Office Closures

The office will be closed for the Christmas holiday on the following days: Thursday, December 23, the office will close at 12:00 noon and remain closed on Friday December 24 and Monday, December 27.

Intercessory Prayer

"Pray for one another that you may be healed. The effective fervent prayer of a righteous man avails much" —James 5:16

Never has the world needed more prayer than right now. Though we know we have so many blessings, in these stressful times it is hard for some to get past their current struggles to remember this. One of these blessings is our opportunity to pray for each other and to be prayed for, unworthy as we may feel. We need not be monastics in order to live a life filled with prayer. We simply need to take time out to think of others for just a few minutes each day.

Saint Mary's Intercessory Prayer group gathers every other Wednesday of the month at 10:30 a.m. in the nave (just before Women's Bible Study) to say prayers and remember those on our parish prayer list. Also, "those whom we prayerfully call to mind" in our own lives.

Now, if you are not able to join us in person, you can do the same in your own home. Fr. Anthony Coniaris created a small prayer book for us and the church can give you a copy along with the current prayer list. You simply need to ask for it. Please consider becoming a prayer warrior with us.

Iconography Classes

Saint George Greek Orthodox Church in St. Paul is hosting session 1 icon class taught by Debra Korluka which will serve the purpose of an introductory study of icon painting technique along with theological and spiritual study of icons. Participants will learn how to paint the icon of the Holy Face.

The Holy Face, the Church's first icon is significant for iconography because the Word of God took flesh in Christ and became part of the material world. Christ Himself gave us His image, His Face, on the cloth for the King of Edessa. It is why we can make images that represent Him.

The coursework is divided into individual steps; the instructor explains the principles and then demonstrates each phase in detail, answering all questions. The course begins with drawing the icon on a prepared panel. Next, local colors within the painting are applied to the panel. Shadows and highlights are developed in the forms of the face and clothing. Painted highlights are finally applied to the painting. Additional educational materials will be provided by the instructor during class

This session meets for four sessions: Tuesdays, January 11, 18, 25, and February 8 from 6:00-9:00 p.m.

The fee is $245 ($145 for tuition plus required kit of materials approx. $100 provided by Wet Paint) Icon Painting Kit includes acrylic paint, brushes and cradled panel)

Please contact Debra Korluka to register/for inquiries at akorluka@aol.com or at 612.889.5868.

About the Instructor

Debra Korluka is an internationally renowned artist and Byzantine iconographer. She was the first American to exhibit in the former Soviet Union and has studied with icon masters from the Ukraine and Russia. Her work, which is displayed in museums around the world, has been commissioned by churches and private collectors nationally and internationally. Over the years, Debra has developed many close working relationships with renowned artists, churches, and monasteries in Russia. ## About Orthodox Icons

The word, icon, can be found in many cultures in contemporary society. The computer industry most likely never knew how much they would contribute to the familiarity of the word "icon" when choosing the word to represent symbols that would reveal magnitudes of information via the technical world.

For centuries, holy icons have been handed down to Christians as a "sacred doorway" into the spiritual world.

Icons have been inseparable in the function of liturgy in the Eastern Orthodox Church since the sixth century. These religious icons denote the same idea as a computer icon; they offer information. The primary purpose of a holy icon is to enable a face-to-face encounter with a holy person or make present a sacred event. Icons communicate Christian Truth in a visual form. Narrative icons are images corresponding to the written Bible, portrait icons reveal information in regards to the virtues that we try to observe and remember in the holy person being depicted. We as onlookers are asked to enter into the living presence and power of the holiness being depicted and into the celebration of the sacred event.

The art form in a Holy icon is intended to be an abstraction producing a spiritual art, which recurs in the painting of icons in any generation or country, always remaining constant, consistent and prescribed by canon rule. It is for this reason that icons convey an art purely idealistic, and not meant to be realistic.

2021 Parishioner Reimbursements

We are fast approaching the end of our fiscal year and wanted to remind all parishioners that we will not accept any reimbursement requests after the close of the calendar year. One of our St Mary's Policies allows for reimbursement only within the year the expense was incurred, and a best practice is to submit any expenses within 30-days of the purchase. We process all our expenses each week on Tuesdays. If you submit an expense after 5:00pm on Monday, it will be held until the following week. Once all invoices are entered into the system, expenses are electronically approved, and checks are generated and mailed directly to your home.

Save the Date – Sunday, December 12

Please join the Parish Council and Church Staff as we honor Fr. George and his dedicated service to St. Mary's. Following Liturgy on Sunday, December 12, we encourage everyone to join us for a festal meal.

In just over seven years, Fr. George has impacted each of our lives and been a loving and faithful presence. We will miss him and his family and wish them continued joy as he begins his service at Holy Apostles in Westchester, Illinois.

Missions & Outreach

So Very Thankful in 2021

What a blessing to be back in the Nave, and what a blessing to be back seeing each other, seeing each other with and without masks. Isn't it exciting when we see more and more opening up? It is great to talk with a neighbor who feels things are getting back to normal. I never thought that each opening would be so exciting, like an old memory!

Meal Pack Event

Sunday, December 5 – 21,000 Meals

Thank you for joining other volunteers who give of their time and energy to reduce food insecurity by packing meals that can help many make their way through the colder months. Each Harvest Pack packet that you fill will be helpful for those in need who CES, Simpson House, and Joyce Uptown Food Shelf assist to have food until the end of the month. It is hard to imagine the need and you have been so very thoughtful and helpful.

Upcoming Event...

Minnesota Citizens Concerned for Life (MCCL) March

Saturday, January 22 in St. Paul.

This heartfelt event begins with a small service at the Cathedral of Saint Paul at 10:30 a.m., then a march/walk to the Minnesota State Capitol steps. Below are photos from 2019 which show the large number of younger people attending. As we re-read the signs and think about us singing "Amazing Grace," this will be a truly ardent, devout morning to think about how we can help give tiny unborn and born lives a chance.

Please prayerfully plan to attend this emotional and very special March for Life. While attending, take a moment to read the signs that people are holding so dearly. The signs share and confess their "regret."

Stewardship

by Athena Mihas

Saint Mary's Stewardship Testimonial

Parishioner, William Buss, shared the following powerful testimonial with us on Sunday, October 24, 2021, following the Liturgy:

Good morning. My name is William Buss. I am 13 years old and have been a member of this parish for nine years. I was asked to speak to you this morning on the subject of stewardship and what it means to me.

I first want to say that stewardship is taking care of what God has given us. It is giving our first fruits, talents, and gifts back to God. God is always willing to accept our best if we mean it from the heart.

Jesus does not always ask us to give money. There are many ways to give. We can use our time to pray for the needs of our world and the needs of the people. We can use our talent for service and our money through almsgiving. Regardless of which contributions we make, we must also give our love, devotion, joy, charity, and kindness. These virtues help those who are in need to regain a new hope.

When I consider what to give, I try to remember the story of the poor widow who gave out of what she herself needed, compared to those who gave donations of large sums out of their excess. Although her contribution was small, it had more meaning. It was more sincere and from the heart.

I want us to not just think of money. An experience when I shared my time was when I went to Feed My Starving Children to help hungry and needy kids turn into healthy boys and girls who now have a hope of reaching their potential. It was valuable for me because I realized that we can only understand our own calling when we understand the people around us.

Building our own virtues does not come easily. Sometimes I don't want to give away my time. Other times, I want to save my money for myself. But I do it to give God what he rightfully deserves and to get a better understanding of myself and others. When I think about it, God allows me to see MYSELF more clearly through the way I want to spend my time, talent, and treasure.

Sometimes I wonder what will happen to the money that I contribute from my savings. Will it be used to help people? Will the homeless person I gave it to buy illegal drugs with it? I try not to judge others through words or thoughts. The great missionary, Mother Theresa of Calcutta, said "if you judge others, you will not have time to love them."

Through our stewardship, we can help others, but also help ourselves to focus on increasing virtues like generosity, kindness, gratitude, and compassion. These virtues are not developed if we only try them once in a while. It takes practice to form a habit. Do not be afraid to practice acts of mercy as often as you can. Whether through prayer, offering your service, or giving your money, try to feed the hungry, give drink to the thirsty, shelter the homeless, bury the dead, visit those in prison, care for the sick, clothe the naked.

I want to give, not only with the mind, but with the heart. I want to avoid giving out of pride, like the Pharisees. I want to be able to give freely with generosity and stewardship, as Christ would. As a member of St. Mary's Greek Orthodox Church, I would like to say that our church is pretty good at generosity and stewardship. I feel that I have been taught well by your example. The question for all of us is whether we will remain true to the faith. We have to continue growing.

When you give, don't just think of a physical award or prize, but an eternal one. Strive for the fullness of humility. There is no need to give a lot in order to claim you are a steward. You can give small amounts until it grows into something great. Even the smallest prayer can save a soul. The important thing is to practice, every day if you can, acts of generosity, kindness, and mercy.

---William Buss

Stewardship Committee Update

The Stewardship Committee has been busy this year making progress on our goals. Here are highlights shared at the October 24th General Assembly:

- Stewardship giving has continued to be strong in both 2020 and 2021, despite the COVID-19 pandemic impact.
- Improving in-reach and engagement continues to be a focus.
  - o Young adult engagement continues to be a priority. The Committee met with the Parish Council to discuss strategies for improving young adult engagement and will be conducting focus groups with young adults as a next step. The purpose of the focus groups will be to request feedback from young adult members on strategies for increasing engagement.
  - o The Parish Picnic in August was a huge success and was a joint effort of the Stewardship Committee and Parish Council. Parishioners enjoyed coming together again for fellowship after so many months of virtual events and social distancing.

- o The “Parea” small group potluck gatherings originally planned for 2021 have been postponed until 2022 due to the impact of COVID-19 this year. The intent of these small group gatherings is to encourage members to connect with parishioners they may not know very well and to continue to build our church community.
  - “Parea” is the Greek word for a group of friends who regularly gather to share their experience about life, their philosophies, values, and ideas.
- Enhancing digital approaches to giving and communications has been a goal for the past couple of years.
  - o The Stewardship Committee has been working jointly with the Technology Committee and Parish Council to improve the website, enhance communications, and make giving to the church easier.
  - o Website redesign was recently completed with an updated look and updated content.
  - o VENMO was implemented as an option for on-line giving, making it easier for members to make contributions to St. Mary’s from anywhere.
  - o Several volunteers contributed their time and talent on these projects, including Kathy Boosalis, Paul Hastings, Cooper Buss, Jessica Buss, and Mike Rakes.
  - o We also have a goal of expanding the use of social media for engagement of parishioners. This is a critical strategy for reaching our younger members.
- The Appreciation Glendi took place on November 13. See details in next section below.
- We kicked off the 2022 Stewardship Campaign in the past month with the following activities:
  - o Testimonial speakers shared personal messages on stewardship and what St. Mary’s means to them (William Buss on October 24, Alexis and Anastasia Friesen on October 31, and Sylvia Kafkas on November 7).
  - o The sermons for three Sundays in a row were focused on stewardship.
  - o The annual Ministry Fair took place on Sunday, November 7. After Liturgy, several parishioners stopped by the Great Hall for refreshments and to stroll among the tables displaying information from the many ministries and organizations that make up St. Mary’s. This is always a wonderful opportunity for everyone to see firsthand how our gifts of Time, Talent, and Treasure are used by St. Mary’s both at home and beyond.

- The Stewardship Committee continues to communicate with members through The Messenger, the weekly Bulletin, quarterly mailings, occasional emails, General Assembly updates and social media.

Annual Stewardship Appreciation Glendi Was a Huge Success!

On November 13, the Stewardship Committee and Parish Council hosted the fifth annual Stewardship Appreciation Glendi to express our gratitude for your gifts of time, talent, and treasure.

Thank you to all parishioners that came out to celebrate. Over 175 members attended the Appreciation Glendi. It was a wonderful evening of fellowship, delicious food, laughter, dancing, and reminded us of the valuable relationships we have with each other and the importance of our faith community.

A big THANK YOU to all the volunteers that helped to make the event such a huge success again this year. We also want to recognize and thank Annette Legeros for planning and coordinating all the event details. We also want to thank John Legeros for preparing and cooking the delicious meal with a team of wonderful helpers. It took a small army of people to set-up for the event, serve the food, and clean up after the event.

Thank you also to the following businesses and individuals for their in-kind donations to the event:

- o Bill Spell
- o Bill’s Imported Foods
- o Dino’s Gyros
- o It’s Greek to Me

Stewardship Campaign 2021 Update

“...the greatest of these is love.”

—I Corinthians 13:13

Thank you for your participation in our 2021 Stewardship Campaign and your on-going support of St. Mary’s through your gifts of time, talent, and treasure. We are getting closer to our goal! See progress update below:

Average per Week	$18,403	$17,131	$1,272
Average per Month	$79,647	$74,141	$5,506

Offering Income As of November 5, 2021

As mentioned earlier, stewardship giving has continued to be strong in both 2020 and 2021, despite the COVID-19 pandemic impact. Your stewardship contributions support all of St. Mary's ministries as well as church operations. St. Mary's continues to be a beacon in the community and throughout the nation among Orthodox Churches.

In addition to Stewardship giving, St. Mary's has relied on both the Greek Festival and rental income to fully cover the costs of the church operations and all ministries. This year, St. Mary's has experienced income losses due to the cancellation of the Greek Festival and reduced rental income.

As a result of this decrease in income, additional sources of funding are needed. The increase in Stewardship giving we are seeing so far this year will certainly help to offset some of these losses. Please prayerfully consider increasing your giving in 2021 to offset these losses.

In the Bookstore

by Rebecca Myerly

bookstore@stmarysgoc.org

The bookstore at St. Mary's is a great source for truly meaningful gifts in all seasons, but especially for Christmas. Now is a good time to visit the newly remodeled and conveniently organized bookstore to select gifts that nourish the spirit. For people stopping in for a quick browse, there are featured item displays including a "New and Noteworthy" section. You will find a large selection of icons and books and other gift ideas from which to choose. Gift certificates are also available.

During this season of grace, there are many icons of the Nativity and books available to enrich the Advent journey. Christmas ornaments and micro icons (1"-1 1/2" in size) are popular gifts for friends and family.

With an abundance of books to choose from, two to highlight are

- 101 Orthodox Saints by Presvytera Sarah Wright and Alexandra Schmalzbach, with illustrations by Nicholas Malara

This is a great book for people of all ages, even though the book is featured for children.

- Timeless Wisdom: Frescoes from the Community of St. John the Baptist (Essex, England)

This beautiful book is filled with icons of Saints and meaningful passages for prayerful meditation. In the introduction explaining this book, the community writes:

Saints were selected based on their ascetic writings, and each carries a scroll presenting their words on the general theme of "brotherly love." In the case of women monastics whose writings have not come down to us, their scrolls contain some representative aspect of their lives. (6)

If you are looking for a gift to be enjoyed around the house or in a dorm room, the bookstore has branched out and brought in some new items with designs by Orthodox Christian artist Aaron Gray, including mugs and framed canvas prints. The mugs feature Saints with their powerful words of inspiration. They are microwaveable, dishwasher safe, and available in 11 oz. and 15 oz. sizes. The canvas prints feature words of faith and encouragement. They measure 8"x 8" x 1 1/2" so they can be featured on a table or desk top—or be hung on a wall. Aaron explains that all his creations are "made with the prayer that [they] will bring the spirit, beauty and joy of the Orthodox Church out into the world and into the everyday lives of Orthodox Christians."

For parents and grandparents looking for a child's gift that can last for generations, we are delighted to offer hand-carved Orthodox Churches made of building blocks. We are grateful to Presvytera Alexandra for introducing us to Alex Goncharov, who lives in Canada and carves the churches from Canadian Red Western Cedar and Olive Wood harvested in Bethlehem. His labor of love began as a way to teach his daughter about Orthodoxy and all the parts of the Church. He makes two churches a week, at night, after his day work. If you are interested in one of these sets, please come to the bookstore or email:

Children & Youth

Our Children and Youth Mission Statement

To cultivate a safe and welcoming environment for kids by nurturing healthy relationships within the church family. We will teach the youth by building a strong foundation of knowledge, and together, we will experience the Orthodox tradition by following the four circles of youth ministry: Liturgia (Worship), Diakonia (Service), Martyria (Witness), and Koinonia (Fellowship), leading our youth to develop, by their own free will, a personal relationship with God and to pursue union with Him.

Church School

Saint Nicholas Celebration

We will be celebrating the feast day of St. Nicholas on Sunday, December 5. We ask that every church school child, all ages, bring an unwrapped toy or gift to donate. The children will process in the Great Entrance and place their gifts on the solea in front of the icon of St. Nicholas. The toys/gifts will be distributed through FOCUS to children in need. As in past years, the children will place their shoes outside their classroom in hopes that St. Nicolas will bring us a small gift - so be sure to wear good clean stockings without holes!

Help Wanted!

Church School parent helpers are needed for special events as well as general help such as making copies, buying craft supplies, etc. Contact Dena Tortorelis if you are interested in helping.

Christmas Program

The Church School Christmas Program will take place in the nave immediately following Liturgy on Sunday, December 19. Please try to attend Liturgy and Church School to help prepare and learn the songs. Also, if there are any child musicians, i.e. harp, cello, violin, guitar, that would like to play for the performance or would like to perform a duet or trio, please contact Dena Tortorelis: churchschool@stmarysgoc.org.

Today the Virgin cometh, cometh unto the cave, to give birth to the Word who was born before all ages, begotten in a manner that defies description. Rejoice therefore, oh, Universe if thou should hear and glorify with the angels and the shepherds. Glorify Him who by His will shall become a newborn Babe and who is our God before all Ages.
