40 Martyrs of Rome; Mark the Just of Apollonia

Morning Gospel: John 21:1-14

Variable Hymns and Readings in the Liturgy

At the Second Antiphon

Save us, O Son of God, who were taken up in glory to heaven from us;
we sing to you, Alleluia!

At the Small Entrance

Hymn of the Ascension, Fourth Tone

You ascended in glory, O Christ our God, after You filled the Disciples with joy, by promising to send them the Holy Spirit, and You blessed them and established their faith, that You are the Son of God, the Redeemer of the world.

Hymn of Entrance

Come, let us worship and bow down before Christ. Save us, O Son of God, risen from the dead. We sing to You, Alleluia.

Resurrection Hymn, Plagal Second Tone

When the angelic powers appeared at Your tomb, the soldiers guarding it feared and became as dead. And standing by the sepulcher was Mary, who was seeking Your immaculate body. Unassailed by Hades, You divested it of spoils. Then You met the Virgin. You granted life.
O Lord, risen from the dead, glory to You!

Repeat the Hymn of the Ascension, above

Hymn of the Holy Fathers of the First Council, Plagal Fourth Tone

Unending glory be yours, O Christ our God, for making our holy fathers radiant lights to all the world. Through them you led us to the true faith.
Compassionate Savior, glory to you.

Hymn of the Dormition of the Theotokos, *First Tone

In giving birth, you preserved your virginity, O Theotokos; in falling asleep you did not forsake the world. You passed over into life, O Mother of Life; and by your prayers you deliver our souls from death!

Kontakion of the Ascension, *Plagal Second Tone

When you had joined earth to heaven and fulfilled your plan of redemption, you ascended in glory, O Christ our God, while remaining in our midst. For you assured those who love you that no one can prevail against us since you yourself are with us.

Epistle*..... *Acts 20:16-18, 28-36

IN THOSE DAYS, Paul had decided to sail past Ephesos, so that he might not have to spend time in Asia; for he was hastening to be at Jerusalem, if possible, on the day of Pentecost. And from Miletos he sent to Ephesos and called to him the elders of the church. And when they came to him, he said to them: "Take heed to yourselves and to all the flock, in which the Holy Spirit has made you overseers, to care for the church of God which he obtained with the blood of his own Son. I know that after my departure fierce wolves will come in among you, not sparing the flock; and from among your own selves will arise men speaking perverse things, to draw away the disciples after them. Therefore be alert, remembering that for three years I did not cease night or day to admonish every one with tears. And now I commend you to God and to the word of his grace, which is able to build you up and to give you the inheritance among all those who are sanctified. I coveted no one's silver or gold or apparel. You yourselves know that these hands ministered to my necessities, and to those who were with me. In all things I have shown you that by so toiling one must help the weak, remembering the words of the Lord Jesus, how he said, 'it is more blessed to give than to receive.'" And when he had spoken thus, he knelt down and prayed with them all.

Gospel*..... *John 17:1-13

At that time, Jesus lifted up his eyes to heaven and said, "Father, the hour has come; glorify your Son that the Son may glorify you, since you have given him power over all flesh, to give eternal life to all whom you have given him. And this is eternal life, that they know you the only true God, and Jesus Christ whom you have sent. I glorified you on earth, having accomplished the work which you gave me to do; and now, Father, you glorify me in your own presence with the glory which I had with you before the world was made. "I have manifested your name to the men whom you gave me out of the world; yours they were, and you gave them to me, and they have kept your word. Now they know that everything that you have given me is from you; for I have given them the words which you gave me, and they have received them and know in truth that I came from you; and they have believed that you did send me. I am praying for them; I am not praying for the world but for those whom you have given me, for they are mine; all mine are yours, and yours are mine, and I am glorified in them. And now I am no more in the world, but they are in the world, and I am coming to you. Holy Father, keep them in your name, which you have given me, that they may be one, even as we are one. While I was with them, I kept them in your name, which you have given me; I have guarded them, and none of them is lost but the son of perdition, that the scripture might be fulfilled. But now I am coming to you; and these things I speak in the world, that they may have my joy fulfilled in themselves.”

The Communion Prayers are found on page 40 of the hymnal.

Communion Hymn

Praise the Lord from the heavens. Alleluia.

After Communion, instead of “We have seen the light...,” we sing:

Hymn of Holy Ascension, Fourth Tone

You ascended in glory, O Christ our God, after You filled the Disciples with joy, by promising to send them the Holy Spirit, and You blessed them and established their faith, that You are the Son of God, the Redeemer of the world.

Weekly Bulletin Submission Deadline: Mondays

Dear brothers and sisters in Christ,

So let each one give as he purposes in his heart, not grudgingly or of necessity; for God loves a cheerful giver. —2 Corinthians 9:7

On recommendation from the Stewardship Committee and after discussion and deliberation in the Parish Council we have decided that it is time for our parish to eliminate the collection of funds through the passing of trays. Even though this action has been recognized as a staple experience of a church service and it creates a sense of immediate satisfaction, it also creates fears and in some cases anxiety for some parishioners and seekers. Our worship services include both parishioners who have been at St. Mary's Church for three or four generations as well as people joining our worship for the first time in search of a deeper relationship with the Lord God. We want all people to experience an embrace of faithfulness to the Gospel teachings of Christ and we want to witness a commitment of faith that offers the ministry of the Church to all.

For the past two years our parish, led by the Stewardship Committee, embarked on educating ourselves toward a new manner of giving to our home church for the ongoing needs of our daily functionality as well as future planning and community well-being. Our parishioners have responded lovingly and generously to the invitation to an increased and more deliberate and disciplined stewardship giving concept. Thank YOU!

Moreover, in the Epistle to the Corinthians we learn that the attitude that accompanies our giving is truly valuable in our relationship with God. The Lord loves us for the fact that we love giving, and that we are proactive in our giving. We firmly believe that all of us at St. Mary's truly desire for our church community to prosper in all facets of life, including financially. All of our joyful giving to St. Mary's creates and provides meaningful ministries and healing assistance to life-long parishioners as well as to strangers. Therefore we encourage and urge you to continue with your continued generous gifts either on Sundays in the trays stationed at the entrance into the church nave or through electronic giving systems.

May God bless all of you richly for your love and generosity!
