Thank You!
A huge thank you to all who made this year’s Greek Festival a huge success! The efforts on everyone’s part made it all possible. From those who began meeting and planning in early spring, to the committees who met regularly, as well as all the bakers, cooks, and cleaners, our financial supporters listed in the Gazette and on the banners around the grounds, the set up crews, boutique organizers, volunteer coordinators, church tour guides, greeters, the clean up crew and those came back Monday morning to help pack up the equipment for next year and scrub the kitchen . . . and to everyone who helped and/or attended the Festival (we hope we didn’t miss anyone!) thank you!

While we were celebrating in glorious weather, others in our country and around the world were suffering through hurricanes, earthquakes, and other disasters. If you would like to make a contribution to the disaster relief, you may do so by going to the International Orthodox Christian Charities website, iocc.org, and click the Donate Now button in the upper right corner.

Thank you again for a wonderful Festival!

National Church Music Sunday

October 1, 2017

October 1, 2017, is the day parishes across our Archdiocese honor the gifts and stewardship of the church musicians of our parish – our clergy, our chanters, and those who teach the hymns of our church to our youth. Their contributions enhance our worship and assure that the glorious treasury of our hymnography continues to edify us and future generations.

National Church Music Sunday occurs on or the Sunday following the Feast Day of St. Romanos (October 1), the Patron Saint of Church Musicians.

Koinonia
Koinonia ministries are faith-based groups that meet once a month in the homes of St. Mary’s parishioners. Groups meet in various neighborhoods across the Twin Cities, to help create a community of faith who are in communion with each other. It is a gathering that looks at an Epistle and Gospel reading for the month, along with discussion questions that are personal response questions dealing with life situations. There is no preparation for the discussions. It is a way for us to be together, learn from each other, and pray together…and, of course, there is the social time for coffee, treats, and lively conversation!

For those of you interested in joining this fellowship ministry, we encourage you to give us a call and we will be happy to let you know what is happening in your neighborhood. Contacts: Tia Muchulas, 952.929.5428, or Sandra, in Church Office.

On a side note, the West Metro Koinonia group took a summer break but still wanted to do something together. We decided in lieu of a meeting to do a service project. Instead of our regular August meeting, we served the dinner at FOCUS on August 6. One of our families has children that are a bit too young to go there to serve but wanted to help. They prepared and donated 34 sandwiches and treats for the school lunch program that FOCUS sponsors. All the families shared in the process of serving this meal. We cooked, shopped, set up, cleaned up, and for those not able to join us, donations were made towards the dinner. Together we served 189 meals. Now, that is what I call fun, faith and fellowship! If your Koinonia group (or family, friends, etc.) wish to do something like this, please contact me in the Church Office. I work with so many of our ministries, I promise, I will try to find just the right place for your group to serve.

Women’s Pilgrimage
Registration Deadline: October 15
Join other local Orthodox women on our annual pilgrimage to St. Paisius Monastery in Safford, Arizona. As an added bonus, we will visit St. Anthony Monastery in Florence, Arizona. The absolute deadline for this trip is October 15 and the cost is $450. The dates are January 23-27, 2018. We still have room for five more. This will be our first time going to the St. Anthony Monastery, so, two for the price of one – not a bad deal!

I encourage you to take a look at the monasteries’ web-sites to find out more about where we will be. stpaisiusmonastery.org; www.stanthonysonastery.org

Save the Date
Mark your calendars for the upcoming Advent Retreat on November 11, 9:00 a.m.-noon with Dr. Katina Kostoulas, a psychotherapy professional with expertise in child and adolescent psychology. Details forthcoming.

The annual Stewardship/Ministry Fair on November 12. Invite a friend, a neighbor, or even better, a family member you haven’t seen for a while, to join us for Liturgy. Then head to the Great Hall for fellowship, and see and learn first-hand about the many ministries of St. Mary’s supported by our Stewardship commitments.

A Thank You from Joyce Uptown Foodshelf
You MAKE US BETTER
I’ve come to believe there are more moments than not when community lifts our spirits to new levels of hope and gratitude. This year’s food donations at Greek Fest has done just that, lifted the spirits of the Joyce Uptown Foodshelf (JUFS) community. The Foodshelf received 3,706 pounds of food donated during Greek Fest. This doubles past years’ contributions. And within our JUFS team and community, we are humbled.

But as important, I wanted to share that your donations go well beyond food. Our Joyce Uptown Foodshelf community feels a responsibility to carry the spirit in which the donations were made to our guests. We work to fill our days with small acts of kindness in honor of your spirit. We set up appointment times, outside of service hours, for the guest traumatized by sexual assault who can no longer be in a crowded, mixed-gender waiting room. We move the client with a brain injury and agitation challenges to the head of the grocery packing line while waiting room guests work to soothe him and carry his groceries. We take time to talk with the children and learn about their schooling, look at phone pictures of the newest baby or latest wedding. We talk with the Veteran and thank them for their service and sacrifice. And we take time with the homeless to see if there are additional service options we could share. We take time to know and care about our guests; they are neighbors.

Our Joyce Uptown Foodshelf team believes we represent our whole community. We are that safe neighbor’s home next door. The neighbor they can count on. We are an extension of your spirit, community and kindness so graciously demonstrated during Greek Fest. The fact is you make us better … and we are grateful.
What a great Greek Festival! My gratitude for the dozens of people who specifically worked at the Bake Sale over the weekend, and for the dozens of people who worked for weeks prior to prepare for the event. The team spirit and camaraderie built among our members is one of the benefits of these efforts. As we move into our fall activities, we’ll continue this spirit while helping those in need. Please attend any of our events, even if you aren’t a formal member. We welcome your attendance! Contact President Paulette Hastings if you’d like more information.

Fall Fillo Sale

Joint Service Sunday with Sunday School

Section 1: Every person who is baptized and chrismated according to the rites of the Orthodox Church is a parishioner. The religious, moral and social duties of a parishioner are to apply the tenets of the Orthodox Faith to his/her life and to: adhere to and live according to the tenets of the Orthodox faith; faithfully attend the Divine Liturgy and other worship services; participate regularly in the holy sacraments; respect all ecclesiastical authority and all governing bodies of the Church; be obedient in matters of the Faith, practice and ecclesiastical order; contribute towards the progress of the Church’s sacred mission; and be an effective witness and example of the Orthodox Faith and Traditions to all people. A parishioner in good standing practices all the religious and moral duties as described in this Section 1. At a minimum, a parishioner in good standing must: be eighteen years of age or over; be current in his or her stewardship and other financial obligations to the Parish, abide by all the regulations herein stated and the Parish Bylaws; and cooperate in every way towards the welfare and well being of the Parish. (Stewardship is recommended to be ten percent (10%) of one’s annual income as stated in Holy Scripture to help meet the financial obligations of the Parish, the Metropolis and the Archdiocese.)

Section 2: Any person wishing to be a parishioner in good standing in more than one Parish must remit his or her Stewardship financial obligation to each Parish as stated in Section 1 of this Article. A parishioner wishing to move from one Parish to another must present a letter of transfer from the Priest of the Parish from which he or she is moving stating that he or she is in good standing.

Section 3: No person shall be deemed a parishioner in good standing while: not adhering to the standards outlined in Sections 1 and 2 of this Article; retaining affiliation in an Orthodox Parish which defies the jurisdiction or the ecclesiastical authority of the Archdiocese; being a member of or practicing a non-Orthodox faith or other religion; and deliberately disregarding and transgressing the moral law of the Church.

Section 4: The Priest shall judge any cases of special circumstances justifying the waiver of a parishioner’s stewardship financial obligations.

Section 5: A parishioner in good standing has the right to attend, participate and vote at Parish Assemblies, as well as to vote in Parish Council elections. Each such parishioner may also be nominated for election to the Parish Council or to represent the Parish at a Local Assembly or the Congress.

Section 6: An Orthodox Christian parishioner in good standing at his or her canonical Orthodox Parish may serve as a sponsor in another Parish without being obliged to become a member in good standing at the Parish where the sacrament will take place. A parishioner may serve as a sponsor in another Parish by presenting a letter of good standing from his or her home Parish Priest.

Section 7: Each Parish shall maintain a Parish Record which shall include, at a minimum, the following information concerning each parishioner: baptismal and family name, occupation (optional), dates of baptism and/or chrismation and marriage, complete family record of spouse and children, date of entry into the Parish indicating if transferred from another Parish, date of death, and such other information that shall be deemed appropriate.
Our Children and Youth Mission Statement

To cultivate a safe and welcoming environment for kids by nurturing healthy relationships within the church family. We will teach the youth by building a strong foundation of knowledge, and together, we will experience the Orthodox tradition by following the four circles of youth ministry: Liturgia (Worship), Diakonia (Service), Martyria (Witness), and Koinonia (Fellowship), leading our youth to develop, by their own free will, a personal relationship with God and to pursue union with Him.
