A Message from Father Jason

Father Jason Houck, Associate Priest

What do Saint Minas, Rommel, and June have in common?

Have you ever wondered if saints from long ago ever cared about modern tragedies and suffering? Have you ever wondered if a saint knew about or cared about something...like World War II? Have you ever wondered, “Where was God in all the destruction and suffering of World War II? Did a saint ever miraculously intercede for us in those most terrible times?” Absolutely! One example is from the battle for Northern Africa. Before July 1, 1942, the Allied forces were continually defeated by the Nazi general Rommel, the “Desert Fox,” and his soldiers. For three years, Axis and Allied forces chased each other over the hostile terrain of the North African desert, with the Axis powers dominating the battles in North Africa. The tide turned in the Allies’ favor, however, at the first and second Battles of El Alamein, Egypt. In that place there were the ruins of an ancient church dedicated to Saint Minas. On night before Rommel and his soldiers were to attack El Alamein on July 1—Saint Minas appeared in the midst of the Nazi camp! Their forces were terrified and demoralized, contributing to the Allied victory. Winston Churchill later said of this victory, “Before Alamein we never had a victory. After Alamein, we never had a defeat.” There are multiple attestations to this miracle of Greek, Coptic, and Anglican origin.

The Coptic Patriarch of Alexandria wrote in an encyclical that Egypt had been saved due to the “the prayers of the Holy and Glorious Martyr Minas, the Wonder Worker of Egypt.” This month we remember St. Minas’ miracle on the eve of the battle which began July 1, 1942. Through the prayers of Saint Minas the Wonderworker may the Lord God keep our nation safe from danger! Amen!

In the Bookstore

Summer is a great season for family reading. There are many good books for families with children in the bookstore: books that not only entertain but also edify and encourage knowledge of—and growth in—the Orthodox faith. Below are brief descriptions of five new books for families that are in the bookstore now.

Elder Cleopa (1912-1998) is considered one of the most important Orthodox Christian elders in Romania. He wrote many stories for young people, stories that have been collected and published in ten volumes by the Sihastria Monastery in Romania where he lived for many years. Volumes One, Two, and Ten of Elder Cleopa Stories for Children have been translated into English and are now in print with beautiful drawings from the Sihastria Monastery. The stories are gentle yet strong, teaching values and virtues. Each story invites one to think about faith and how faith is—or is not—lived out in the life of each person in the story. These stories are great conversation starters for families with children, and they are really suitable for people of all ages.

Alisa Rakich Brooks has published two books in a series she is in the process of writing called “Genesis: His word and His works.” Let There Be Light and The Wonder of Water tell the story of a young child named Mila and her mom looking at the story of God’s creation in the book of Genesis and then doing simple science experiments (in these books the experiments are about light and water) that demonstrate how science can reflect and reveal the wonder of creation. This leads to a greater appreciation for all that God has created. Gratitude and the joy of discovery permeate these books. Good reading!

It’s Festival Baking Time!
A favorite feature of the Taste of Greece Festival is the Bake Sale, as evidenced by the inventory sell-out each year. We make a wonderful variety of delicacies that we bake in our beautiful kitchen!
Stephanie Panos is the Bake Sale Coordinator, and each cookie type has a captain who organizes the making of that item. Many people are needed to make large volumes of cookies, so you’re encouraged to contact the captains to offer your services. Even if you’ve never baked a Greek sweet, you are welcome. We’ll publish the captain list and contact information in the near future. In the meantime...

Baking begins in June with Baklava, under the leadership of Elena Gabor, 952.898.4132 or 952.288.3011, e-mail: elenagabor14@gmail.com

HCHC Announces 2018 Honorary Degree Recipients
Three extraordinary individuals will receive honorary doctorates at Hellenic College Holy Cross Greek Orthodox School of Theology’s Commencement on May 19. Their very different but equally laudable accomplishments are deserving of this special recognition and the gratitude not only of this institution, but of all Greek Orthodox Christians in America.

Reverend Father Anthony Coniaris
Among the many distinguished graduates of Holy Cross, Fr. Coniaris has made an indelible mark on Orthodoxy in America in a remarkable number of ways: as a pastor, as a homilist and teacher of homiletics, as an author and publisher, and as a hands-on advocate for sick children. Fr. Coniaris entered the seminary at the school’s original home in Pomfret, Connecticut, and was among the first to graduate from its new Brookline campus in 1948. Upon his ordination that same year, he began to serve the parish of St. Mary’s Greek Orthodox Church in Minneapolis, Minnesota, and continued to do so for the next 44 years. During his tenure as priest at St. Mary’s and as a board member of the Children’s Heart Fund, Fr. Coniaris worked with the local Philoptochos chapter to bring close to a hundred Greek children to Minneapolis for open-heart surgery at the University of Minnesota Hospital. In 1966 he founded Light & Life Publishing, which has published some two hundred titles, including his own, and become one of the largest Orthodox publishing firms in the world.

Other recipients are John P. Calamos, Sr., Chairman and Global CIO of Calamos Investments, and Efstatios (Steve) G. Valiotes, founder and chief executive officer of Alma Realty Corporation, one of the largest real estate development and management firms in New York City, and founder in 2007 of Alma Bank.

Congratulations, Fr. A.!
Hands On Summer for Women and Children!
All summer long Philoptochos will be supporting women and children served through several organizations. Participate when you can!

In addition to documenting our traditions and recipes, the cookbook serves another important purpose: supporting local charities. Watch for more specific information in the coming weeks, and plan to purchase your copy in late summer/early fall, including at the Festival!

On behalf of Tandem moms and their babies, THANK YOU!

The baby bottles returned full of coins, bills, and checks. Currently a total of $600.12 has been raised during Lent 2018. The Baby Bottle Banks are a Lenten journey reminder for adults and a visible and tangible way to help young children understand giving. If you still have a BBB to turn in, please leave it at the church office. Bottle Banks are stored, reused and all money collected is sent to Tandem. For more information about this wonderful organization please visit their website at wearetandum.org. Tandem serves women and children in Minneapolis and is a nonprofit organization. Tandem offers classes, medical care, resources, support in crisis and meets women where they are, equipping them with the resources they need…working in tandem, together. That is why the name is Tandem!

It is exciting to see Tandem grow and be such a beautiful, supportive, caring resource for our area. Thank you again, and watch for BABY BOTTLE BANKS (BBB) next year. —Linda Hodge

Mission and Outreach Ministry

Focus on Missions

How old were you when you did your first good deed? Many of us have no idea how old we were or what we did. You know there was a time that you offered unselfish giving. You remember that it was a good thing.

With the grace of God and our gifts of the Holy Spirit, we are children with free will to serve God.

Why did St. Mary’s establish a Mission and Outreach Ministry Team?

Twenty years ago St. Mary’s adopted a “Vision for our Future” master plan. To paraphrase from the “Ministries of Saint Mary’s” booklet: One of the outcomes of this plan was and is the Mission and Outreach Ministry team.

The Mission and Outreach Ministry team ties together and brings to life the opportunities outlined in our Parish’s Vision; Hear, Pray, Grow. Serve and Share.

St. Mary’s Parish Vision: Who Do We Serve?

Each Sunday bulletin provides you with a “Focus on Mission.” If you need more information, please come to the Welcome and Information Table in the social hall for details on each mission. We have a binder that holds mission information and may help you find a member of St. Mary’s who volunteers or knows a particular mission.

Mission and Outreach has the privilege of meeting many people that are “New” to St. Mary’s. We offer information to those who are new to St. Mary’s so they meet other members as well as introduce people to those of similar interests or background.

The following are examples of support to others. We have supported family, (Families Moving Forward), families and individuals struggling with addiction (Metro Hope/Healing House), volunteer support for food shelves and budget, support IOCC disaster support in Iraq, in Syria, and to Coptic Orphans.

Ask Missions and Outreach about upcoming events and dates for events.

Stay tuned for more Mission and Outreach Ministry “Focus on Missions.”
Ark of the Covenant Stewardship Campaign Update

Thank you to all parishioners for your generous gifts! Due to your generosity, financial stewardship results for the first four months of the year are showing very positive trends on all of our key metrics. Financial Commitment (Pledge) Forms received to date reflect increases compared to last year:

Note: “Pledge” is referring to the financial annual commitment reflected on a completed Fair Share Financial Commitment Form.

In addition to the increase in pledge commitments that are summarized in the table above, the pledges to date also reflect the following:

► 66 members increased their annual pledge ($33,191)
► 32 members decreased their annual pledge ($9,407)
► 50 members pledged same amount as last year ($63,025)

Overall Offering Income payments received as of April 30, 2018, including both pledge payments and non-pledge offering income, reflect an increase of $94,371 compared to last year at this time:

The table below shows how much more is needed by December 31 to reach our Stewardship goal for 2018:

Note: $190,151 of the $459,549 in total pledges has been paid to date.

Church Etiquette

Did you know ... when is it too late to arrive at Church and receive communion?

It is tradition if you arrive after the Epistle, Gospel, and sermon, one should not approach the chalice. We must strive to be in church on time for teaching as well as receiving the Sacrament of Communion. We must have time to prepare our minds and hearts to be in the right place prior to approaching the chalice.

Greek Word of the Month

Glendi

Many of you have heard the word Glendi used at St. Mary’s in regards to various events that take place at the church. But what does Glendi really mean?

Glendi is the Greek word for “party” or “celebration” as in the wedding reception, national holiday, or a feast day celebration with music, dancing, and of course, food. These were often held in the town square years ago and went on late into the night.

Our Children and Youth Mission Statement

To cultivate a safe and welcoming environment for kids by nurturing healthy relationships within the church family. We will teach the youth by building a strong foundation of knowledge, and together, we will experience the Orthodox tradition by following the four circles of youth ministry: Liturgia (Worship), Diakonia (Service), Martyria (Witness), and Koinonia (Fellowship), leading our youth to develop, by their own free will, a personal relationship with God and to pursue union with Him.
