A Message from Father Jason
Father Jason Houck, Associate Priest

Not Another Boring Banquet

During the last week of October, we had the honor to have Metropolitan Nathanael visit the Twin Cities to bestow the Bronze Cross Award on our own Paulette Hastings. The Bronze Cross Award is a service award given to a volunteer in each parish of the Metropolis to honor and encourage volunteerism in our parishes. Metropolitan Nathanael said of the award, “As Orthodox Christians, we place our faith in Jesus Christ who saved the world through service to others and self-sacrifice. As His children, we are called to embrace Christ’s example. We are truly blessed to work alongside so many servant leaders on a daily basis. We know that these men, women, and emerging adults seek to receive an imperishable wreath in heaven; however, it is our hope that by highlighting their example, others will be inspired to imitate them.”

Paulette Hastings worthily received the award for her hard work. A few of Paulette's contributions to our parish include: her exemplary organization and inclusive leadership as past president of Philoptochos, her service as a past Church School Director, her visits to our V.I.P.’s at Jones Harrison Assisted Living Residence, her volunteering at the Taste of Greece, and her overall willingness to help when volunteers are needed. We arranged a surprise visit at her house (check out the video on St. Mary’s YouTube channel and Facebook) allowing the Metropolitan the chance to bestow the award on Paulette. Due to COVID-19, the banquet in Chicago to honor the Bronze Cross Award...

...recipients was cancelled. The Metropolitan jokingly said, “normally we would have been doing this last May, at a boring banquet. This is so much more fun!”

It was a joyous event, but more important to highlight here is not the fun surprise, but rather, the wonderful example of stewardship of Paulette’s time and talents for the upbuilding of our parish. It is worth re-iterating Metropolitan’s words here. “It is our hope that by highlighting their example, others will be inspired to imitate them.” As we reflect on our stewardship commitment to St. Mary’s of our time, talent, and treasure, let us look to Paulette’s example of her beautiful stewardship to our community through the years.

Thank you, Paulette! Your stewardship is inspiring!

In Christ,

Fr. Jason Houck
Parish Council Voting Procedures

With the recommendation and blessing of the Metropolis of Chicago, Parish Council Elections will occur exclusively by mail. No in-person ballots will be distributed or accepted. Deadline for your mail-in ballot to be received by the Church Office is Friday, December 4, 2020. Our Board of Electors will count all ballots received by the deadline and send the results to the Metropolis for certification.

Thank you to all those who submitted applications to serve on the Parish Council. May God bless you for your love and dedication to St. Mary’s.

Parishioner Reimbursements

Late last year our Parish Council passed a policy that allows for reimbursement within the year the expense was incurred. We will not accept any reimbursement requests after the close of the calendar year. Reimbursements for December 2020 purchases must be received in the church office by January 28 – expenses submitted beyond January 28 will not be accepted. We process all our expenses each week on Tuesday mornings. If you submit an expense after 5:00 p.m. on Monday, it will be held until the following week. Once all invoices are entered into the system, expenses are electronically approved and checks are generated and mailed directly to your home.

Angel Tree Program

Due to the Covid-19 pandemic, the purchasing and delivery of individual gifts has been suspended this year. Each of us who wish to support a child this Christmas is asked to send $22.00 to St. Mary’s (marked “Angel Tree” in the memo line). The child will receive from Angel Tree a gift card with a message from the incarcerated parent. The child will also get a coupon for a complimentary Bible which they can obtain online. Please send your donation early in order for it to arrive at St. Mary’s by December 1. Questions may be directed to Bob Kennedy, 952.941.5311.

• December 15-17: Fr. George Parsenios will present on the topic: “The Nativity and the Biblical Narratives.”

Year-End Giving Guidelines

It is hard to believe that we are in the final month of 2020. So many things have happened this past year, not the least of it the generosity of our parishioners. As we approach the end of both our calendar and fiscal year, it is important that the parish correctly record your stewardship gifts. Every dollar we receive before 3:00 p.m. on Monday, December 28, will be recorded and reflected on your year-end Contribution Statement, and matched against your yearly pledge, as stewardship income for 2020. Donations received after the deadline will be counted towards our budget for next year.

On occasion, a parishioner may choose to provide additional funds to the church, indicating these dollars should be recorded as a donation for a “future year.” While we can make a notation of this request, the funds will still be recorded and reported as income for 2020. Your Statement of Financial Giving will accurately reflect all income received in a particular calendar year. Should you have any questions or need additional information, please see our Parish Council Treasurer, Michael Rakes, for clarification.
As we move through the Christmas Advent Season, Philoptochos thanks you for your support of our work all year long. We extend our best wishes to the parish for health, spiritual growth, and time with those you love, even if it's from afar.

Operation Classroom

Operation Classroom is a national Philoptochos initiative that encourages local chapters to connect with a neighborhood school to assist them in whatever way we can. At St. Mary’s, we have initiated a relationship with Jefferson Community School, a PreK-Grade 8 school with 517 students, of whom 83% are eligible for free lunches and 9% for reduced price lunches.

Our first project is a collection of new and clean, gently used winter outerwear, specifically:

- Winter Jackets (Sizes 3T – Appropriate Adult)
- Waterproof Mittens
- Hats

The collection will run through Tuesday, December 15. Donations can be brought to the bin in the south entrance of St. Mary’s. Chairs: Jayne Klatt and Paulette Hastings.

Women’s Book Club Discussion

Tuesday, December 8, 7:00 p.m.

The discussion of “The Life of Saint Macrina” will be on Tuesday, December 8, and all women are welcome. We plan to have options to attend via Zoom or in person, weather permitting. Copies of the book can be purchased from the St. Mary’s office for $12.00. Chairs: Katherine Boosalis and Diakonissa Alexandra Kalina.

Cookbooks Make Great Gifts!

There is a limited quantity of the St. Mary’s cookbook “Come Sit at Our Table: A Celebration of Food,” so consider getting one this holiday season! They make a great gift for a godchild, friend or relative! For contactless delivery through the mail, send $20 + $4 shipping by mailing a check payable to St. Mary’s Philoptochos (please write cookbook in the memo line) at 3450 Irving Avenue S, Minneapolis 55408.

Vasilopita for the New Year and St. Basil Academy

Pending approval by the COVID Safety Committee, Philoptochos’ Annual Vasilopita (Sweet Bread) Sale is a go! Our intent is to have all orders placed through the church office or via an online option with delivery on Sunday, January 10. Cost is $15 per loaf. Please watch for more information in other church communications. Chairs: Toni Bazakos and Tina Menter.

Proceeds from the Vasilopita Sale will go to St. Basil Academy. The National Philoptochos Society purchased the estate that became St. Basil Academy in 1944, and has responded to the needs of the Academy and its children for more than 70 years. Located in Garrison, NY, St. Basil Academy is a home for children in need. The academy provides a loving Christian environment where resident children are nurtured to adulthood.

Thank You…

Eight vehicles left FOCUS House on Saturday, October 17, filled to the brim with generous donations of goods for our brothers and sisters in Mille Lacs County. Nearly 50 coats were donated along with winter outerwear, household goods, over 1000 diapers and wipes, school supplies and much more. This is a growing relationship for FOCUS Minnesota and we thank GOD for the opportunity and all of you for your heartfelt outpouring of love.

ProLife March, January 22, 2021

This heartfelt event with a small service takes place at the Cathedral of Saint Paul, then a march/walk to the Minnesota State Capital steps. Last year (below photo) shows the large number of younger people attending. Reading the signs and singing “Amazing Grace” is truly an ardent, devout morning to think about how we can help give tiny unborn and born lives a chance. Please plan to prayerfully attend this emotional event, always a very special March for Life. And while attending, take a moment to read the signs that people are holding so dearly. The signs share and confess their regret.

Orthodox Christians for Life Motto: “Before I formed you in the womb, I knew you.” —Jeremiah 1:5

ProLife March, June 28, 2020
As we close out 2020, we want to thank you all for your support of St. Mary’s. You have all collectively allowed us to care for the facility, for the staff, for our parishioners, and for the community, all the while increasing our liturgical and spiritual education efforts, during a most challenging time. What a year it has been, and yet, here we are, better and stronger for our struggles.

You will be receiving your 2021 Stewardship packet soon, if you haven’t already done so. Our challenge for 2021 is to continue to glorify God with our time, talent and treasure, and to be cheerful givers. The church may survive without your support, but your soul will greatly benefit from your commitment of time, talent and, not insignificantly, your treasure. It’s what we are called to do as faithful Orthodox Christians. Please fill out your pledge cards prayerfully and return them timely, so that we may plan for 2021!

Please very carefully read the testimonial below of a wonderful young adolescent in our parish, Lucas Hanna, who spoke in church a few weeks ago. His words are beautiful and incredibly powerful. He speaks of a faith that is unwavering, and he represents, along with many other young people, the future of our church.

May God bless you during this Nativity Season, and may He bring you health and happiness in the New Year!

Some words from Scripture and the Holy Fathers to ponder and pray about:

“None of us lives to himself and none of us dies to himself. If we live, we live to the Lord and if we die, we die to the Lord; so whether we live or whether we die, we are the Lord’s” —Romans 14:7-8

“Without charity, virtue is an illusion”
— from Abba Isaiah, Ascetic Discourse

“Our money is the Lord’s, however we may have gathered it.” —St. John Chrysostom

“...Send your treasures to the heavenly storage room. Deposit your wealth in God’s Bank, distributing it to the poor, the orphans and the widows, so that you can receive a million times more in the Second coming of Christ” —Elder Joseph the Hesychast

Lucas Hanna’s Testimonial

Hi, my name is Lucas Hanna

I am here to talk about the church and how COVID has affected all of us. Before COVID we were just getting into lent, it's my favorite time of the year, because it really allows me to look back in the past and see what I can improve on and seek repentance. So we come upon our first lent service and we were getting ready for another month of preparation for the Resurrection, and then we heard about the virus, and then the books went away, the pamphlets went away, the Bibles went away, and then the church shut down, and as of that Sunday the Metropolitan called church off, and then we realized what we lost. We lost the choir, we lost the altar, we lost the congregation, and Sunday school. All of those things were taken from us. And we started celebrating liturgy in our house and before I knew it, Holy Week came. And I remember thinking, I hope that the Lord will resurrect not only himself at the end of this week but also lift the virus up away from us and break free our chains that are keeping us inside our houses. And I realized, this week was going to be different.

So I lit candles, I sang hymns, I tuned into the Facebook page every day of Holy Week, and every service. I lit candles for the twelve gospels on Thursday, I made an epitaphion, and decorated it with flowers and bay leaves, and we found the big candles that were my Yiayia and Papou’s wedding candles on Holy Friday. We sang hymns and we processed around the house and stopped at each corner, and then we went back in and finished the service. Then Saturday came. Overnight I changed the scenery of our whole house, and dusted all the icons and wiped them clear of all the dirt and dust and put up white pure cloths and curtains all around the house in the middle of the night so it would be ready for tomorrow’s service. Then on Saturday morning I threw rose petals and holy water all over and sang “arise oh God” and although it was different I really, really, really in that moment missed our church, and the joy that we felt back then. Then I went out and dug up lilies and daffodils and all different flowers, and placed them on the mantel for the midnight service and we turned off the lights and waited for the holy flame to be lit and before we knew it, there was joy in the air and Christ had truly been risen, and in that moment, I cried a little. It was very emotional for me this year to be away from the church and not be able to sing Christ is risen with the congregation and the choir. And enjoy the festivities after the service, and enjoy the lamb burgers and the never ending trays of bacon, and then finally carrying the lamb for our feast tomorrow out of the kitchen and into the car, and being scared that we would get pulled over and think that a person was in the backseat! And I stayed up all night, participating in the services.

At this time I would like to note that even after all that…. Jesus was with us in the difficult time, and it was definitely different, and I realized how much I missed my church. Now I want you all to think about what you missed during the time away from the parish. I know I missed the choir, and singing on Sunday mornings and late night choir rehearsals with Despina, and GOYA, and being in the altar, and talking with my friends.

Most of the things that are important in the church are back, such as the congregation and serving in the altar and communion. And although they are vital to the church, there are still some things that aren’t there for me yet such as the choir, the festival, and we had a trip to a monastery this year too that was called off, and even chant group and coffee hour. Those are still things that are still not back for me yet, and I’m sure you all miss them too.

So I want everyone to be thankful for the things that are back. We are strong, this epidemic has strengthened us to be more thankful and persevere more, and really enjoy what we had and will hopefully continue to have in the future. I encourage you all to make a big step in your faith and be more a part of the parish, so maybe next service, sing a little louder, be a little more bold, show that you are strong and that we as humans can persevere from this. And always be proud of our faith. So next time you wake up and think “ughhh I have to go to church tomorrow” or “I don’t want to get out of bed” think about how bad it was before and be thankful that we still have church today and the ability to worship in this troubling time in our society. Be thankful, I can, and you can. We can persevere.

Thank you.

Prayer is the light and life of the soul. It is an everlasting bond uniting us to Christ.... All human beings need prayer no less than plants and trees need water. And just as they cannot grow and bear fruit if they are not receiving water and nourishment through their roots, neither can we bring forth the fruit of piety, godliness, and a life pleasing to God if we are not watered by the grace of the Holy Spirit in prayer. (x, xi)

Saint John Chrysostom

The Light of the World: Prayers to Our Lord and Savior Jesus Christ, translated by the Very Reverend Archimandrite Maximos Constas, is a source and well of nourishing spiritual water. Archimandrite Maximos explains in his introduction:

The prayers in this volume take the form of confessional meditations, in which readers are invited to speak directly to Christ, and at the same time reflect on the nature of their life in relation to him.... These prayers consequently invite and require the reader to ask: "Who am I in this world? Where is my place within it? How am I oriented to it, and what is the nature of my relationship to it? What is my response to this world—the nature and degree of my ‘responsiveness’ to it?" From this point of view, the prayers function as a mirror in which the self is reflected in the text, externalized and made available to the reader for self-reflection, examination of conscience, and heightened self-knowledge. To read these prayers with devotion is to surrender oneself to the world of the prayer; it means to consent to lose oneself, to allow oneself to be reconfigured within that world and restored on a higher level. These dynamics of reading and reflection—a movement of self-loss and self-discovery—provide the conditions for the possibility of a spiritual exercise which, in the framework of these prayers, is a process that encourages heartfelt confession through a genuine dialogue with Christ. (xvi-xviii)

Elder Aimilianos of Simonopetra describes prayer as “the journey of the soul toward God” (xi). The Light of the World is filled with prayers to Christ to help the reader on this journey. Composed of prayers from many Saints, including Basil of Caesarea, Ephraim the Syrian, Gregory Palamas, Gregory the Theologian, Isaac the Syrian, John Chrysostom, and Maximos the Confessor, all translated and presented in a way that invites meditative reading, this book is one the attentive reader will find to be like Scripture, which always speaks anew with every reading—with every prayer.

Newly published (November 2020), The Light of the World is another vital book from Newrome Press for people seeking prayer in the patristic tradition. This book is truly a lasting gift to give to anyone, including oneself. It is a gift of grace.

“Jesus, Son of God, open the eyes of my heart, so that I might know the benefits of prayer and spiritual reading” (27-28).
Children & Youth

Our Children and Youth Mission Statement
To cultivate a safe and welcoming environment for kids by nurturing healthy relationships within the church family. We will teach the youth by building a strong foundation of knowledge, and together, we will experience the Orthodox tradition by following the four circles of youth ministry: Liturgia (Worship), Diakonia (Service), Martyria (Witness), and Koinonia (Fellowship), leading our youth to develop, by their own free will, a personal relationship with God and to pursue union with Him.
